Elks' Jubilee and Carnival.

From Thursday's daily.

Nothing more beautiful in the way of a parade than the one which passed through the streets this morning has ever been witnessed in Hopkinsville. Large processions have been seen, but no levelness has not been surpassed.

The chief feature was, of course, the Queen's float which was a genuine work of art, being fitted with the throne under a large canopy and decorated in an exquisite manner with the Elks' colors, purple, blue and white. Miss Morris, the queen, was seated on the float, which was pulled by a team of white horses. The float was decorated with the Elks' colors, purple, blue and white. The float was pulled by a team of white horses. The float was decorated with the Elks' colors, purple, blue and white. The float was pulled by a team of white horses.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

FIRST PRIZE
Mr. Sam Frankel.
SECOND PRIZE
Mr. James E. Cooper.
THIRD PRIZE
Mr. Henry G. Wood.

The prizes were $50, $25 and $10 respectively, in gold.

The judges were prominent visiting Elks and were selected by the executive committee just before the parade started, and had no information as to the names of the owners of the vehicles. The judges were Mr. John Baxter, Exalted Ruler of the Nashville lodge, Mr. Commodore Cook, of Clarksville, and Mr. James Francisway, secretary of the Madisonville lodge. They strolled the parade from three different places and made their awards on points carefully considered.

The parade was formed on Virginia street between Sixteenth and Eighteenth by Chief Marshal Charles F. Jarrett and his aides, and traversed the following route: Down South Main to Sixth, along Sixth to Virginia, on Virginia to Ninth, from Ninth to Campbell, thence to Seventh and out to the carnival grounds. At the head was City Judge Douglas Bell on horseback, then came a platoon of mounted police. Wright's band followed.

STREET SHOWS.

Halle, the equilibrist, at L. & E. street.

The Musical Earle, in a musical act at Eighth and Main Sts., 10:30 a. m.

The DeClaville trapeze performers, Sixth and Virginia Sts. 11:30 a. m.

The Two Revvies, revolving globe act, 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.

The Flying Doves, trapeze performance, 4:30 and 9:15 p. m.

discouraging sweet music. The musicians immediately proceeded Mayor and Joseph Henry and other city officials in carriages. Company D, came next, and then the county of fete in carriages. After these were the fire department and decorated bicycles. Just before the Queen's float was Girard's uniformed band. The beautiful Queen and her lovely maids on the royal float were guarded by the gallant cadets of South Kentucky College. Next in line came the following persons in handsomely decorated vehicles:

Mr. Matheiser Mason and Miss Agnes Morris, in trap decorated with white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Sam Frankel and Miss Rosey Frankel in carriage decorated with yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. H. W. Waddy, accompanied by Miss Moore of Ash Grove, N. C., the Duff of Virginia, and Miss McCee, of Louisville, in trap decorated with black and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Kate Bachman accompanied by Miss Theresa Coleman, in trap decorated with pink and white morning glories on white background, with outriders.

Cart of Mr. Henry Wood driven by Mr. George Wood, accompanied by Miss Sarah Rogers, decorated with yellow and black chrysanthemums.

Cart decorated by Mrs. Jas. M. Queen's float at Hotel Latham will be one of the most decorative features even given. Gentlemen who attend will see the cards being in the lot. Messrs. H. M. Bryan, a Bell, Fletcher Campbell and Woodbridge.

Parade will not begin until 1 o'clock. The music for this event will be furnished by "Charles" orchestra of Nashville, Tenn.

The Court of Fun presents as fine Midway attractions as can be found anywhere in the country. Mr. Harry W. Wright, the popular and efficient manager, has in his carnival company the best features that long experience, business tact and money could secure. Those people who have seen the several large expositions of recent years know that the shows of the Elks' Jubilee Company compare most favorably with the great fairs at Atlanta, Nashville, Omaha, and even Chicago. The many hundreds who were denied the pleasure of visits to these world famous shows may taste their delights on the Court of Fun.

These attractions at Mercer park charge only ten cents admission while the Midway shows of the Exposition had their entrance prices at from 35 cents to one dollar. The chances of prizes here is easily accounted for. At an exposition elaborate buildings have to be erected, rental space and percentage paid, which necessitates an increase in the price charged, and the length of time which the shows have to run must be considered. When these facts are considered all is easily understood.

Since the opening nothing but the highest words of praise have been heard on all sides, and the Wright Carnival company has won an enviable place in the hearts of all Hopkinsville people.

The Ferris wheel is now ready and was in operation last night. It revolves 75 feet high and gives its patrons a splendid view of the grounds and surrounding scenes, and a sweep through the air attended by no danger.

The Streets of Cairo and the Streets of India were well patronized last night. The former is a miniature representation of the famous streets of Cairo of the Chicago exposition and a well worth seeing. Dark skinned and lustre eyed maidens, from the land of the Khedive, recede the visitors with their native dances, some of which are weird but all are pleasing. Many ladies attended this show last evening.

All who attended the performance of Wallace's glass blowers were amply repaid for their time and trouble by witnessing a first-class entertainment. With apparently the utmost ease those clever artists shape every imaginable article out of glass, from a tiny little penholder to an elaborate full rigged ship. The exhibition is of special interest to ladies and children. Many of them were present last night, and all were pleased with the beautiful souvenirs which were given them by the glass blowers.

Among the good shows of the Wright Carnival Company is the wild animal show which is particularly pleasing to all who visit it. A stellar feature of it is the act of a lady trainer who goes into a cage containing panthers, a leopard and a full grown lion. She exhibits the utmost disregard of any danger and demonstrates to the audience how well she has tamed the animals.

Moselle, the "Maid of the Mist," is attracting large crowds. It is a fine show and all who visit it are lavish in their praise.

The daring dive of Charles Johnson from the top of a ladder 100 feet high into a tank of water four feet deep is the most astonishing act ever seen in Hopkinsville. The feat is particularly attractive at night when the ladder is illuminated with hundreds of electric lights.

The Mysterious Miss Jones, who flies, floats and swims in mid-air, is an attractive illusion.

Chauncey Morlan, the "fat boy" and his better half, Mrs. Morlan, the gnatcatcher, are as interesting a couple as one could wish to see.

Princess Argetta, the living doll, is making many friends. She is a bright and entertaining conversation.

The statue turning to life is a remarkable and beautiful performance.

The opium den and We No, who "Eats 'em alive" are among the queerest shows on the grounds.

The children are finding the merry-go-round a treat.

"She" has a tent full at every performance. In addition to the creation of a pretty woman, an accomplished magician does clever work, and a series of amusing moving pictures are shown.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky. "It seemed to me that the child was dying. I called a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from croup and whooping cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve."

Infallible for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Anderson & Fowler, J. O. O. Cook, L. L. Elgin and C. E. Wylie's drug stores.

BETHEL COLLEGE

WILL CLOSE FOR VACATION NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Commencement Exercises Of Institution Will Begin Friday Night.

Bethel Female College, after one of the most successful sessions in its history, will on Wednesday, May 28, close for the summer vacation.

The exercises will begin Friday night, the 23rd, with the annual reception given in honor of the pupils of the college. Invitations for this pleasant function have been mailed by the young ladies to their friends and all are anticipating a delightful time.

The order of the Monday night entertainment will be varied this year. Instead of the usual recital in the chapel, an opera entitled "The Spanish Lady" will be given at the opera house.

The program will include some beautiful presentations of classic groups of statuary. "The Spanish Lady" is well worthy of the patronage of all friends of the college. Miss Drake takes the leading part and is well supported by many good voices. The songs are bright and the costumes very attractive.

Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock the Alumnae of the college will hold a session in the chapel. Mrs. J. H. Anderson, the president of the association, has arranged an attractive program, which includes good music and talks by Dr. John O. Rind, of Nashville, and Mr. William Harrison.

Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, the baccalaureate address will be delivered at the Baptist church. Dr. Rust who will deliver this address is in great demand for such occasions. He is a fluent, forceful and graceful speaker and will charm all who are fortunate enough to hear him.

For this occasion will be especially pleasing. Mrs. H. Virgil Richards will preside at the organ. Miss Drake will sing a lovely solo, and an attractive selection will be rendered by a quartet composed of Misses Drake and Newman, Messrs. Clifton Long and Wallace Kelley.

Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock will be held the last roll call and chapel exercises of the session, with certificates of distinction will be delivered to the junior classes.

Wednesday night at 8 o'clock the regular public exercises incident to closing the session will be held in the college chapel.

All honors awarded, all distinctions won will be then announced and certificates and class diplomas will be delivered publicly to intermediate and senior classes.

Prof. Harrison will then make his farewell address to the graduates and school, and the degrees will be conferred. There are eight applicants for degrees.

The following young ladies will receive diplomas of graduation in intermediate music: Misses Dell Gaines, city; Georgia Rushing, Owensboro; Ida Schaefer, Greenville, Ky.

These exercises are given in order that the public may become acquainted with the methods and work of the college.

To defray necessary expenses, an admission fee of 25c for reserved seats will be charged at the opera house, Monday night. The other entertainments are free and all are cordially invited to attend.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles.

I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Chertley of Potomac, Pa., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, and although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work. It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Anderson & Fowler, J. O. O. Cook, L. L. Elgin and C. E. Wylie's drug stores."

DR. HOSS IS ELECTED BISHOP

(Special to New Era.)

DALLAS, Tex., May 22.—At the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the voting for bishops and other connectional officers began today.

Dr. F. F. Hoss, of Nashville, Tenn., was elected bishop on the first ballot. The McMurtry substitute report on the war claim controversy has been adopted.

Advertising in The Sky.

During the week when novelties are the order of the day, H. S. Hoss, of Dallas, Tex., introduced a very clever one today in the advertising line. They sent up three large kites all connecting with the same main string and supporting a large streamer upon which was painted in box car letters the ad. of this enterprising firm.

It is the most unique "ad" ever used here, and the enterprising firm is to be congratulated on its perfect success.

GOES TO LOUISVILLE.

Mr. Yost To Leave—Succeeded by R. A. Rogers.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Yost will learn with sincere regret that they will leave this city the first of June for Louisville where Mr. Yost has accepted a position with the Hatcher Milling Co.

Mr. Yost has been secretary and treasurer of the Crescent Milling Co. for the past six years and is one of the most popular young men, both in business and social circles, in this city. He will be succeeded at the Crescent Mills by Mr. Ross A. Rogers.

The best wishes of Mr. and Mrs. Yost's host of friends will follow them to their new home.

Auto Broke Down.

Secretary and Assistant General Manager Leiland Hume, of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company, and Operator E. R. Hatcher left Nashville yesterday en route to Clarksville in an automobile. They made good time until within about seven miles of Clarksville, when a leak was sprung, necessitating a stop of several hours for repairs. Mr. Hume telephoned for a horse and buggy and reached the city late in the evening. He left soon after for Hopkinsville, and went back to Nashville on an early train this morning.

Mr. Hatcher succeeded in repairing the damage to the "auto" and rolled into Clarksville last night about dark. He remained over night and left early this morning on his return trip to Nashville.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

Warehouse Burned.

The Enterprise Tobacco Warehouse at Mayfield was destroyed by fire Tuesday. About 1,000 hogsheads of tobacco burned. The building covered more than an acre of ground and the loss is over $100,000. Mr. W. B. Kennedy had 70 hogsheads of tobacco in the building. His loss is covered by insurance.

Nominated For Appellate Judge At Russellville.

ON CROPS

GENERAL CONDITIONS ARE FAIRLY GOOD.

Outlook Not Altogether Favorable.—Tobacco.—Locusts Appear.

Following weekly summary of conditions in Kentucky was given by the local weather bureau.

Most of the week was cool. Only scattered showers occurred, covering only a small portion of the state.

Wheat looks promising, and prospects for a small crop.

Corn planting is about completed, and many fields have been planted to a second crop.

The ground for tobacco plants is prepared, and setting will begin shortly after the coming week.

In the west plants are abundant and in good condition, but in the central and east there is a shortage of plants and they are small and late.

This is especially true of the north-central portion of the state, where tobacco land is being planted in other crops.

Oats and grass are doing well, but need rain.

Fruit appears to be doing fairly well. Strawberries are ripening and peaches are making satisfactory progress.

Cutworms still continue their depredations in the northern and eastern portions of the state.

The seventeen-year locust made their appearance near Louisville on the 14th. They are coming out in great numbers in some localities, but as far have done no damage.

STATE TEACHERS.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE LEXINGTON MEETING.

Large Crowd Will Enjoy Various Features Of The Convention.

At the last annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association, held in Louisville, the time for holding the future annual session was changed to the summer, and under that arrangement the next annual meeting will be held June 24 to 26, inclusive, at Lexington.

The citizens committee of Lexington has formulated plans for entertaining the teachers that can but make their session in that city most enjoyable.

There will be receptions, entertainments and visits to points of interest in and about Lexington—of which there are many. Ashland, the home of Henry Clay; Boy's Spring, a landmark in the pioneer history of the Transylvania county; Lake El Estero, a beautiful lake in the State Reform School, the Eastern Kentucky Asylum, the colleges, parks, beautiful drives and boulevards, and the great stock farms.

At the same time, the Kentucky Chautauqua will be in session at Woodland park, within the city limits, where excellent lectures, entertainments and musical recitals will be presented.

On Friday, the day after the association adjourns, there will be an excursion to Torrent and Natural bridge, in the heart of the Kentucky mountains. A three lunch will be given to members of the Association at Natural bridge.

The smallpox situation in Trigg county is said to be improving and the board of health is taking all necessary precautions.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES. Confederate Memorial Day Appropriately Observed.

From Tuesday's daily. Confederate Memorial Day was observed with simple but impressive services yesterday afternoon by the members of the Confederate Memorial Association. Shortly after ten o'clock the veterans marched out to Hopewell, where the ladies of the Association had assembled. After a beautiful and earnest prayer by the Rev. Edmund Harrison, handsome floral decorations were placed about the graves of the Confederate dead. Flowers and flags were placed on the graves of all the dead soldiers, both Confederate and Union, in the cemetery.

To Cure Grip In Two Days. Laxative Bromo Quinine removes the cause. E. W. Gray's signature on every box. Price 25 cents. 2-20-17.

Impurities in the blood produced by digestive disorders must be driven out before bad weather sets in, otherwise sickness will appear at a time when a strong, vigorous body is most needed. Reliably Ash Bitters will expel all impurities and put the system in perfect order. R. C. Hardwick.

Many Bodies ARE RECOVERED. (Special to New Era.) KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 21.—Nearly one hundred bodies have been taken from the Frazier mine at Coal Creek, the scene of the awful catastrophe, in which the lives of 226 miners were blotted out.

The cause of the disaster developed today, when it became known that gas had collected in an abandoned mine close by, into which an opening had been accidentally made last week by a boy working in a tunnel.

Don't Start Wrong. Don't start the summer with lingering cough or cold. We know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it hangs on through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Last once. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys themselves break down and waste away by cell.

De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where the injury has aggravated the injury De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. AMERICANS MARCH OUT OF CUBA. Formal Transfer of Island Occurred Today. (Cablegram.) HAVANA, May 20.—The evacuation of Cuba by American troops and the formal transfer of the government to President Palma occurred at the palace today when the American and Cuban forces assembled, presented arms, listened to a national salute and watched the American flag come down and the Cuban standard hoisted by Gen. Gomez.

All but five batteries of artillery will embark at once on transports, the United States. These five batteries of artillery will be sent to various American naval stations, where the American flag will fly. Outside of these stations the troops will be amenable to Cuban laws.

Warm spring days produce a feeling of drowsiness if the body is loaded with the impurities of winter diet. Cleanse the blood, liver and bowels with Prickly Ash Bitters. It cures energy and cheerfulness. R. C. Hardwick.

Like a Drowning Man. "Five years ago a disease the doctor called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could hardly get on my feet. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People I was able to do my work. It is the only medicine which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. R. C. Hardwick.

BRIGHT FOR BOOM. IS THE OUTLOOK AT NORTONVILLE.

Several Paducah gentlemen who are interested in the big Nortonville day went yesterday and spent the day there and report the outlook very bright for a big boom.

The company has bought 1,000 acres of land, including 600 town lots, and on the property are two rich coal veins. A shaft will be sunk as soon as possible and a coal mine established there. The coal is plentiful and will be extensively mined. A shaft factory, from present indications, will be located there and the prospects are for a boom of large proportions as soon as all the details of the deal are complete.

A sale of town lots will shortly be made and many homes will soon be started. The company at the back of the deal will spend a great deal of money in developing the resources of the country.

A meeting is to be held at Hopkinsville Wednesday by the stockholders of the new company to transact important business.—Paducah Sun.

WINGED PESTS HERE

SEVENTEEN-YEAR LOCUSTS HAVE APPEARED

In Countless Numbers At Nearby Points—Great Damage Is Feared

The seventeen-year locust has appeared in this region, and Christian county farmers are in dread that they will do much damage.

Their ravages have not yet begun in this county, but in Henderson and other western and southern Kentucky points these pests have been seen in countless numbers.

The seventeen-year cicada, as it comes from the ground, is encased in a hard, outer coat of translucent, horny material, which invests closely its body and limbs, the claws of the feet being sharp and pointed. This is for the purpose of enabling the animal to dig its way out of the ground. After getting to the surface the locusts are apparently dormant for a short time. Pretty soon, however, the hard casing begins to split open along the anterior portion of the body, and then the insect inside begins struggling for escape from the shell. It soon makes an opening large enough to admit its crawling out.

When, out of its shell, the locust presents very much the same appearance as the ordinary locust which appears each year in small numbers. It has dark green wings, which it is at once able to use to a limited extent. It crawls upon some tree or other object where it rests awhile and becomes able to make free use of its legs and limbs. This is the state in which the insects are now found in the woods and fields. They almost cover the trees and fences and are found sitting still and may be picked up easily.

The locusts are a menace to young trees and do much damage to growing trees and to the tender branches of large ones. They have a method of jabbing a sharp caudal appendage into the bark and sap of the tender limb and depositing their eggs there. This almost invariably kills the limb.
